SPECIAL SPRING HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE COLLECTIONS

Waukesha, WIS – Any County resident can participate in special one-day household hazardous waste (HHW) collection opportunities from 8 a.m. until 12 p.m. at the following locations:

- Saturday, May 19 – Mukwonago at the Village Public Works Garage, 630 Hwy NN
- Saturday, June 2 – Brookfield at the City Public Works Yard, 19450 Riverview Drive
- Saturday, June 16 – Delafield at the Department of Public Works, 111 Main Street

"This is an opportunity for residents to properly dispose of old, unusable chemicals, pesticides, wood preservatives, solvents, oil-based paints, and mercury-containing products", stated Karen Fiedler, the County's Recycling Supervisor. "Latex paint and non-hazardous cleaning materials will not be accepted," she added.

These collections are for households only; however, there is a special Agricultural Clean Sweep program for farmers, growers with pesticides. Visit the website www.waukeshacounty.gov/recycling or call 262-896-8302 for more information on proper disposal of hazardous waste or to obtain a list of acceptable HHW materials.

In addition to the special HHW collection dates, these sites provide year-round collection services:
